OPENING ACT: CRESCENDO

Tay River Gallery reopens May 4th with our first show of the season, OPENING ACT: CRESCENDO. Fitting for the start of our 2006 season is this extraordinary exhibition of dynamic works from John Alexander Day, Tricia Wilmot Savoie, Karen Phillips Curran, Leslie Rohonczy, John Topelko, Antal Serences and Catherine Gutsche.

A diverse mix this time around with landscapes and seascapes, local scenes, historical buildings, florals, architectural beauties, animal life, still life and abstracts, works in watercolours, oils, acrylics, and mixed media.

New to the gallery this month is artist Catherine Gutsche with two of her mixed media "Tie Works", Gridlock & My Best Pearls and Jane Christie with her Twisted Sister Creations, gorgeous jewelry.

Important to note for our out-of-town customers, Gallery hours for May are

May 2006

Thursday, Friday and Saturday from 11:00 a.m. to 6 :00 p.m. Other weekdays by appointment. Contact L. Brown at 613-257-2701 or 613-264-5448. Join our Opening party festivities on Saturday June 10th from 3:00 p.m. to closing.

This is your opportunity to meet featured gallery artists, enjoy refreshments and take advantage of special gallery savings. More about the reception in the upcoming June issue.

New works in the gallery this month from Karen Goetzinger with her quilted wall hangings and quilted handbags with oriental theme;

We had anticipated relocating the gallery and expanding our space in 2005 but these plans did not materialize. Tay River Gallery reopens this spring in its current location at 28 Wilson St W. in Perth Ontario. We have an exciting year planned for 2006 season!

New for June well that's a surprise that will keep until the next newsletter.

Do drop in and visit!
